Explanations:

1. Fragment C has an error, with respect to verb.

Here verb should not be used in gerund form because it is preceded by infinitive “to”. Thus instead of “declining”, use of “decline” is preferred.

Correct fragment: owing to decline in private consumption growth,

Hence option C is correct.

2. Fragment D has an error with respect to wrong use of part of speech.

Here instead of comparative degree of adjective “wide” (wider), verb “widen” is to be used in order to connote that the tax base should be increased or broadened.

Correct fragment: tax authorities to widen the tax base.

Hence option D is correct.

3. All the fragments are absolutely correct.

Hence option E is correct.

4. Fragment B is erroneous as Industry is singular, thus the verb “mean” should be used in singular form i.e. means.

Correct fragment: industry means that antibiotics

Hence option B is correct.

5. Fragment C is erroneous as it uses “though” instead of “through”.

Correct fragment: resistance is through improved

Hence option C is correct.

6. The error is in fragment D due to subject-verb disagreement. The subject is plural and hence the verb in this case should be ‘remain’ and not ‘remains’.

Correct: The fruits of peace are limited to the revival of economic activity, but the pervasive grievances of the minority remain.

Hence, option D is correct.

7. The error here is in fragment B as the correct phrase would be 'make up' which means to compensate for something and not 'made up' which means imaginary.

Correct: When tensions persist among communities, nothing can make up for the absence of reconciliation and trust among all sections.

Hence, option B is correct.

8. The error here is in fragment C as the correct word is precedent and not precedence. Precedence means being considered more important than someone or something else while precedent means an earlier event or action that is regarded as an example or guide to be considered in subsequent similar circumstances.

Correct: A collapse of the deal would not only exacerbate the Iran nuclear crisis but also set a bad precedent in international diplomacy.

Hence, option C is correct.

9. The error here is in fragment B as the correct word is lull which here means to make (someone) feel deceptively secure or confident. Dull is meaningless and makes no sense.

Correct: The U.S.-China trade war has flared up again after a deceptive lull over the last few months, when both sides were trying to negotiate a deal.

Hence, option B is correct.

10. The statement is correct in its original form and hence needs no replacement.

Hence, option E is correct.
