Correct Answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
A	B	E	D	B	C	E	D	E	E

Explanations:

1. In part A, the word 'times' must be replaced with 'time' as the correct idiom is 'By the time' and not 'By the times'.

By the time indicates the relative time (before and up to the end-point) of one activity as the reference point for viewing the ongoing or completed state of a second activity. ("maybe before but no later than the time")

Hence, option A is correct.

2. The preposition 'instead of' is generally followed by a gerund. In part B, the infinitive 'to buy' hence must be replaced with 'buying' to make it a grammatically correct sentence.

Hence, option B is correct.

3. The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Option E is hence the correct answer.

4. In part D, the idiom 'learning about' must be replaced with 'learning' as it is more appropriate in the context.

'To learn' means to gain knowledge, comprehension, or mastery of something through experience or study.

Ex. It took me almost a year to learn French.

'To learn about', while, is an idiom which means 'to find out about someone or something.'

Ex. What have you learned about Mr. Franklin and his business dealings?

Hence, option D is correct.

5. In part B, the verb 'has' must be replaced with 'have' as it has to be in agreement with the number of the subject 'people' which is plural.

Hence, option B is correct.

6. In part C, the verb 'find' must be replaced with its past form 'found' to make it a grammatically correct sentence.

Hence, option C is correct.

7. The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Option E is hence the correct answer.

8. In part D, as the clause is in the passive voice, the verb part 'would attacked' will be replaced with its passive form 'would be attacked' to make it a grammatically correct sentence.

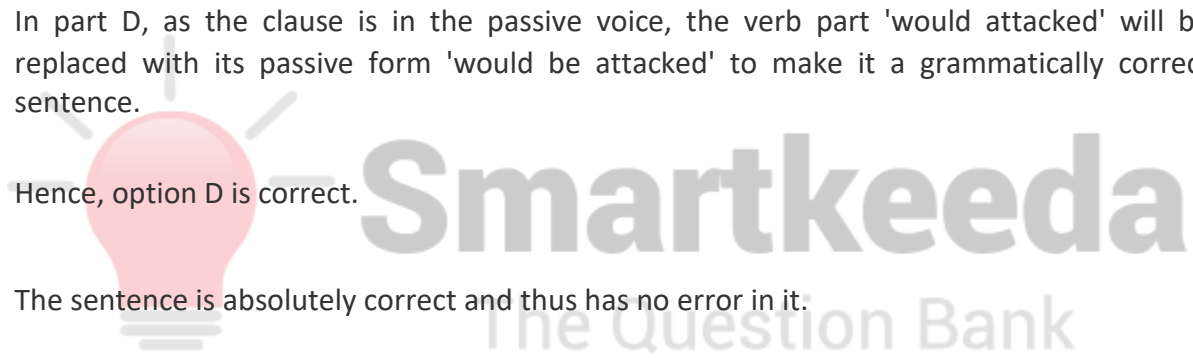

Hence, option D is correct.

9. The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Option E is hence the correct answer.

10. The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Option E is hence the correct answer.
