Correct answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
D	D	C	B	D	C	D	D	B	C

Explanations:

1. Checking B-D:

She needs to quit worrying then and now is inflation.

The sentence doesn't make any sense. The pair B-D is hence invalid.

Checking A-F:

The NCLAT had held that Essar Steel's operational creditors be treated on par with financial creditors when settling the claims.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

The biggest differentiator between then and now is inflation.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

2. Checking A-E:

Infosys Foundation's FCRA licence now stands cancelled after the Ministry agreed to accept its request.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

He ran out of money, so he had to stop playing poker.

The above sentence is also correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-D:

We went to a Japanese restaurant only coming out to breathe in air.

The above sentence too is incorrect both grammatically and contextually. Hence, the pair C-D is invalid.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

3. Checking A-F:

The old power structure of world oil markets could be on the verge of a potentially far-reaching shift.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

The stars are twinkling in the clear night sky.

The above sentence is also correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

Harry wanted Sally to take out the garbage needed picking up.

The sentence doesn't make any sense contextually. The pair C-E is hence invalid.

Option c is hence the correct answer.

4. Checking A-F:

India has been striving to reduce supply risks in the backdrop of rising geopolitical uncertainties.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

Since everyone was busy she went to the movie alone.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually as well.

Checking C-E:

I couldn't even understand the main point of what he said.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

5. Checking A-F:

The case filed by it had accused TCS of stealing its intellectual property.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

This is a little bit too lose around my waist.

The above sentence is incorrect. "Loose" should be used instead of "lose" in order to make it meaningfully correct.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

6. Checking A-F:

Concepts like fairness, justice and morality are beyond the domain of economic analysis.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

She folded her clothes and stuffed them into the suitcase.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

That old lasso is on the left of the cupboard is the sink.

The sentence doesn't make any sense. The pair C-E is hence invalid.

Option C is hence the correct answer.

7. Checking A-F:

Perfectionists often find themselves unable to cope with even small frustrations, failures and losses.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

They asked us to go to Boston with themselves ran away.

The sentence doesn't make any sense. The pair B-D is hence invalid.

Checking C-E:

She works two jobs to make ends meet.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually. Hence, the pair C-E is valid.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

8. Checking B-D:

Creativity and uniqueness certainly goes a long way.

The above sentence is incorrect grammatically as the singular verb 'goes' has been used for the plural subject 'creativity and uniqueness'.

Checking A-F:

A whole sports stadium was required to assemble the thousands of small investors in the Reliance enterprise.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

Her reason for not having time to join us seemed like an excuse.

The above sentence is also correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

9. Checking A-E:

Wealth must circulate within the economy for it to grow inclusively and sustainably.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

My sister tries to be copy me by saying that she likes all the same things that I do.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually as well.

Checking C-D:

It's too late to shut the barn door after the horse has been stolen.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

10. Checking A-E:

Blatantly claiming that a stent is better than its foreign counterpart will only hurt the healthcare system in India.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

Romi and Mia started talking as soon the teacher entered theroom.

The above sentence is grammatically incorrect because the correct conjunction is “as soon as” and not “as soon”.

Checking C-D:

She does not like pastels and paints only with bold colours.

The above sentence is also correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option C is hence the correct answer.
