Correct Answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
B	C	B	E	C	D	E	C	E	A

Explanations :

1. The original statement is incorrect due to as restored does not make sense. Investment would help in restoring an economy and not with an already restored economy. Also, tense of undertake is incorrect.

Option A: Slowing is opposite to the correct meaning and is incorrect.

Option C: Shouting does not make sense as the first word. The other two words also do not make sense in the statement due to being incorrect in terms of meaning.

Option D: Assuaged means relieved and does not fit in contextually. Also, overlooked is opposite of the correct meaning.

Option B: All the words fit in well.

Hence, option B is correct.

2. The original set of words is incorrect due to use of special which should have been especially.

Option A: All the words are incorrect and do not fit in.

Option B: Only belonging fits as the third word. Thought is very general while peculiar; meaning strange, is incorrect in terms of meaning.

Option D: Both heed and relevant are incorrect.

Option C: All the words fit in well.

Hence, option C is correct.

3. Set does not fit in meaningfully in the original statement.

Option A: All the words mentioned are incorrect and do not replace the existing words meaningfully.

Option C: All the words mentioned are incorrect and do not replace the existing words meaningfully.

Option D : Distinguished is followed by from and not to. This option is incorrect.

Option B: All the words fit in well.

Hence, option B is correct.

4. The statement is correct in its original form and no word needs to be replaced.

Hence, option E is correct.

5. The original statement is incorrect as the none of the words make sense and render the statement meaningless.

Option A: Complacency is opposite of what is needed here. For is also incorrect.

Option B: Newly is incorrect here.

Option D: With does not make sense here.

Option C: All the words are a perfect fit in the statement.

Correct: The turbulence in emerging markets is hardly surprising as the tightening of monetary policy by the U.S. Federal Reserve has traditionally caused the turning of the global credit cycle.

Hence, option C is correct.

6. The original statement is incorrect as the decimal and minimal are both absurd and do not make sense.

Option A: All the words are incorrect.

Option B: Both percentage and will do not fit in.

Option C: None of the words fit in.

Option D: All of the words are correct.

Correct: Although absolute numbers of people facing hunger and poor nutrition have always been high, there was a reduction in the rate of undernourishment since the year 2000.

Hence, option D is correct.

7. The original statement is correct contextually and grammatically and does not need to be changed.

Hence, option E is correct.

8. The original statement is incorrect since all of the highlighted words are used out of context and hence, do not make any sense altogether.

Option A: Irreparable and loss do not fit in.

Option B: All the words are incorrect

Option C: All the words are perfect fit

Option D: All the words are incorrect

Correct: It is often perceived that Indian Cricket Team is invincible but the recent England tour has shown that even the Indian team can lose a series in seaming pitches.

Hence, Option C is the correct choice.

9. The sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually and hence, does not require to be changed.

Hence, Option E is the correct choice.

10. The original sentence is incorrect since the highlighted words are not correct according to the context given and that is why they are not making any sense at all.

Option A: The words are perfect fit for the context

Option B: Diligent and certainly do not go with the context

Option C: Dutiful and extreme are not correct

Option D: All the given words are irrelevant

Correct: The diplomatic relation between Russia and the EU is going to affect the global equilibrium since the shift in the centre of power will definitely make its mark.

Hence, Option A is the correct choice.
