Hints to Remember

Who: India

What: to partner with Japan and UAE to set up two projects in Africa

When: published on 15th April 2019

India is joining hands with Japan and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) to implement two projects in Africa as it seeks to extend its footprint on the continent where strategic rival China has made deep inroads, two people familiar with the developments said.

While India will build a cancer hospital in Kenya in collaboration with Japan, it will partner with the UAE to set up an information and communications technology (ICT) centre in Ethiopia, said the two people cited above, requesting anonymity.

The parties have held talks in recent weeks, one of the people said, adding that the details on implementing the projects are expected to be finalized shortly.

Analysts have welcomed India's plans, given the major forays of China into Africa since 2004-05.

Hints to Remember

Who: US dept of State

What: advises citizens to reconsider their travel to Pakistan

When: published on 16th April 2019

The US Department of State has advised its citizens to reconsider their travel to Pakistan due to terrorism. It has asked their citizens not to travel to restive Balochistan, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa (KPK) and Pakistan occupied Jammu & Kashmir as it has identified these places as the most dangerous areas due to terror attacks.

While Pakistan in general has been placed in "Level Three" category in the latest travel advisory issued by the US yesterday, several parts of the country, including Balochistan, KPK province, Pakistan occupied Jammu & Kashmir and India-Pakistan border, have been placed in the most dangerous "Level Four" category, identified as high risk areas.

Asserting that terror groups continue plotting possible attacks in Pakistan, the State Department said that terrorists may attack transportation hubs, markets, military installations, airports, universities, schools, hospitals, tourist locations, places of worship and government facilities.

Hints to Remember

Who: Virat Kohli

What: named captain of the Indian squad for the ICC World Cup 2019 in England and Wales

When: published on 15th April 2019

Dinesh Karthik returned to India's World Cup squad after 12 years, trumping Mahendra Singh Dhoni's heir apparent Rishabh Pant in a selection move that will be debated for a long time.

The second wicketkeeper was the sole bone of contention for the marquee event starting in England and Wales on May 30 and the 33-year-old Karthik's experience of 91 ODIs gave him the edge over the 21-year-old Pant, according to the five-member selection panel headed by MSK Prasad.

Karthik, the oldest Indian player in terms of international debut (three months before Mahendra Singh Dhoni in September 2004), was also part of the Indian squad during its disastrous 2007 World Cup campaign. He, however, missed the bus in 2011 and the 2015 editions.

In the squad that was announced Monday, Dhoni will be playing his fourth, expected to be the final, 50-over World Cup. Kohli will play his third edition while Rohit Sharma, Shikhar Dhawan, Ravindra Jadeja, Mohammed Shami and Bhuvneshwar Kumar were all a part of the 2015 edition.

India captain Kohli's pre-IPL statement that the cash-rich league will have no effect on the selections proved to be prophetic as Pant's 245 runs in the T20 showpiece fell short of Karthik's 111 runs.

Naturally, Prasad had to field the maximum questions on Pant's omission and the explanation was Tamil Nadu stumper's experience.

Hints to Remember

Who: Election Commission

What: bars all campaigning by election code violators

When: published on 16th April 2019

The Election Commission (EC) issued a flurry of orders on Monday, barring Uttar Pradesh chief minister Yogi Adityanath, Bahujan Samaj Party chief Mayawati, Union minister Maneka Gandhi, and Samajwadi Party leader Azam Khan from campaigning for varying periods of time for their intemperate utterances on the campaign trail.

EC's actions came shortly after it was pulled up by the Supreme Court. A bench headed by Chief Justice of India (CJI) Ranjan Gogoi took a dim view of its submission that it didn't have much powers and wasn't in a position to take any action other than issuing advisories. "Mr Election Commission, you have to act very promptly. You cannot drag matters like this. Get into action immediately,” the CJI said.

Soon after, EC issued its orders barring Adityanath and Mayawati. It barred the former from campaigning for three days, and the latter, two days, both beginning at 6am Tuesday, for flouting the model code of conduct by referring to religion and caste in their speeches. This is the first such punishment meted out to any leader this political season. Interestingly, the court reviewed the five notices issued till Monday morning by EC. It noted that two were to Adityanath and one to Mayawati and that neither leader had responded.
