9. Hints to Remember

Who: Afghanistan Cricket Board (ACB)

What: has suspended wicket-keeper Mohammad Shahzad

When: published on 9th August 2019

The Afghanistan Cricket Board (ACB) has suspended wicket-keeper Mohammad Shahzad for an indefinite period following a further breach of the ACB Code of Conduct.

Shahzad, his country's all-time top scorer at international level, has received the punishment for travelling out of the country without seeking permission of the governing board.

A statement from the ACB read, "As per ACB's policies, any player travelling out of the country is required to seek the permission of ACB. Shahzad has not adhered to this, repetitively."

The suspension comes after an accumulation of incidents, the first instance cited during the 2019 ICC Cricket World Cup in England and Wales. Shahzad was withdrawn from the squad and sent home from the tournament having played just matches following a 'disciplinary matter'. It also appears that he was absent for arranged meetings in connection to his omission.
