Explanations:

1. Hints to Remember

Who: Crisil

What: cuts India's GDP growth to 6.9% from 7.1% for FY20

When: published on 1st August 2019

Crisil cut the gross domestic product (GDP) growth estimate for India by 0.2 percentage points for FY20.

The rating agency's cut to 6.9 percent from 7.1 percent comes amidst slowing global growth and weak monsoon recorded in the country in June. Sluggish data for the first quarter was another contributing factor.

Core sectors such as refinery products output saw a contraction and reports suggest domestic demand has lowered, consumer economy and industrial sectors have slowed, while non-banking financial sector (NBFCs) has weakened and investments recorded low numbers.
