Correct answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
E	B	B	C	E	A	D	A	E	A

Explanations:

- (1). The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Hence, option E is the correct answer.

- (2). The error is in fragment B. The word 'chick' which means 'a young bird' is incorrect in this context.

The correct expression in this context is 'chic' which means 'elegant and stylish'.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

While the public healthcare mechanism stutters, the charges in the chic private facilities are frightfully exorbitant.

Hence, option B is the correct answer.

- (3). The error is in fragment B. The comparative degree of 'worst' should be used here as the June rainfall has been compared.

So 'worse' should be used instead of 'worst' in order to make the sentence correct.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

In the last 50 years, June rainfall has been worse only in 2014 and in 2009, when farmers were ravaged by the worst drought in 37 years.

Hence, option B is the correct answer.

- (4). The error is in fragment C. The comparative degree of 'good' should be used here.

So 'better' should be used instead of 'good' in order to make the sentence correct.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

India wants more stringent data storage rules so it can better access data and conduct investigations when the need arises.

Hence, option C is the correct answer.

- (5). The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Hence, option E is the correct answer.

- (6). The fragment A of the sentence is erroneous. The past perfect tense has been used. Hence, the past form 'led' should be used instead of 'lead'.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

The trade disputes have led to higher tariffs by the two countries and created unease over the depth of their security alliance.

Hence, option A is the correct answer.

- (7). The fragment D of the sentence is erroneous. The preposition 'between' is used to refer to two individuals whereas the preposition 'among' is used to refer to more than two individuals.

Hence, the preposition 'between' must be used instead of 'among' in order to make the sentence correct.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

The differences between American companies and India have further fuelled trade tensions between New Delhi and Washington.

Hence, option D is the correct answer.

- (8). The error is in fragment A. The noun "people" is already plural and adding an "s" would make it incorrect. Apostrophe should be applied at the end of the word in order to show possession in case of plural nouns.

"people's" should be used instead of "peoples" in order to make the sentence correct.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

We also found out that people's existing beliefs and opinions greatly influenced how they judged the credibility of images

Hence, option A is the correct answer.

(9). The sentence is absolutely correct and thus has no error in it.

Hence, option E is the correct answer.

(10). The error is in fragment A. The word 'quiet' which means 'silent' is incorrect in this context.

The correct expression in this context is 'quite' which means 'completely'.

The correct sentence would therefore be:

We see citizens who are quite irresponsible and continue to go jogging between midday and 2pm.

Hence, option A is the correct answer.
