Correct Answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
B	A	C	C	B	D	C	C	A	A

Explanations:1.

In part B, the pronoun 'he' must be replaced with 'him' as it is the object of the verb and hence is in accusative case.

Hence, option B is correct.

2.

In part A, the verb 'agonize' must be replaced with 'agonizes' to match the tense of the sentence.

Hence, option A is correct.

3.

In part C, the indefinite article 'an' must be used before the phrase 'international norm' as 'norm' is a countable noun and is signifying an entity (singularity) in the context.

And as the adjective 'international' starts with a vowel sound that of 'e', the article 'an' must be used before it and not 'a'.

Hence, option C is correct.

4.

In part C, 'restoring' must be replaced with 'restore' as in the active voice, base form of a verb is used after a modal (can, may, should) and not a gerund.

Hence, option C is correct.

5.

In this sentence two modals- 'can' and 'should' are being used and 'be considered' is passive form of the verb 'to consider' and will be used only once after the modals.

Therefore, In part B, use of 'be' right after 'cannot' is not required and hence must be removed.

The correct formation will be- "Taking care of yourself cannot and should not be considered as a selfish thing."

Hence, option B is correct.

6.

In part D, the noun 'survival' must be replaced with the past participle 'survived' to make it a grammatically correct sentence.

Hence, option D is correct.

7.

In part C, the preposition 'for' must be replaced with 'to' to make the sentence meaningful.

Hence, option C is correct.

8.

'Commitments' are generally fulfilled and 'Rights' are generally exercised.

In part C of this sentence, 'exercising' must be replaced with 'fulfilling' to make it a grammatically correct sentence.

Hence, option C is correct.

9.

In part B, as we are talking about more than one person, the noun 'face' must be replaced with its plural form that is 'faces'.

Hence, option B is correct.

10.

In part A, the adverb 'exorbitantly' is generally used when dealing with price or fee.

Here, in the context, we could use the adverb 'extremely' in place of 'exorbitantly' to make the sentence meaningful and correct.

Hence, option A is correct.
