6. Hints to Remember

Who: Kaushik Basu

What: Authored a New Book Titled "Policymaker's Journal: From New Delhi to Washington, DC"

When: published on 7th July 2021

Kaushik Basu cannot be accused of sloth. Research papers, books and newspaper columns tumble out of him in a steady stream. His latest book, Policymaker's Journal: From New Delhi to Washington D.C. (Simon and Schuster India), is a diary covering two spells in policy realms.

He joined the Ministry of Finance in India for three years as chief economic adviser (CEA) starting in 2009, a year after the global crisis of September 2008. From there he moved to the World Bank as chief economist (and senior vice president) during 2012-16. The book is not a serious review of economic policy, ground covered in an earlier book, but is more a conspiratorial invitation to the reader to take a peek into the interior of policy worlds, marvel at the people he meets and laugh with him at what goes on there. The front cover blurb by Raghuram Rajan describes the book as "interesting, funny, and insightful".

7. Hints to Remember

Who: Keshav Datt, 1948 and 1952 Olympic star

What: passes away

When: published on 7th July 2021

One of India's finest hockey players, a double Olympic gold medallist, Keshav Datt passed away in the early hours on Wednesday. Datt, 95, is survived by two sons and a daughter.

As per his attendant Dolly Bairahi, who had confirmed the news of his death, his demise was caused due to age-related ailments, as the former hockey star had not been in the best of health for some time.

Born in Lahore in 1925, Datt pursued his academics and sports at the Government College in the western Punjab city. He was mentored by the legendary Dhyanchand and progressed rapidly, playing alongside KD Singh Babu. Datt came into the limelight while representing Punjab in the National Championship in pre-Partition India. After independence, he moved to Bombay and later to Calcutta in 1950, representing Bombay and Bengal at the National Championships.

9. Hints to Remember

Who: India's Harika

What: finishes runner-up in Women's Speed Chess C'ship

When: published on 4th July 2021

An untimely and unfortunate internet outage halted a brilliant run by India's Dronavalli Harika as she lost to Chinese legend Hou Yifan in the final of the Womens Speed Chess Championship on Saturday.

In this online tournament in which contestants play three rounds of games with decreasing time-limit, Harika led 4-2 in the seventh game when she lost internet connectivity that cost her three minutes of the total five allotted in that segment. Down to less than one minute thirty seconds, the 30-year-old from Guntur district in Andhra Pradesh, fought bravely but made mistakes under pressure and eventually lost that game.

Each match in this tournament comprises three segments. Each player gets five minutes in the first segment, with one second added to the clock after each move, to complete the game. In the second round, the players get three minutes to complete the game with one second added to the clock for each move and in the final segment of bullet chess games, they get one minute each on the clock with one second of increment after each move.

After losing that rapid chess game, Harika managed to draw the next and eventually finished the round leading 5.5-3.5.

11. Hints to Remember

Who: New Snake Species discovered in Mizoram

What: has been named after Local Warrior Vanhnuailiana

When: published on 6th July 2021

It was a bright summer morning in March and researchers from Mizoram University were surveying for herpetofaunal (reptiles and amphibians) species in villages not far from the capital city Aizawl. Though night fell, they continued their survey and spotted a snake on a boulder in a dried-up area of Tuinghaleng river bed. Further detailed studies revealed that it was a new species of the Stoliczka genus and only the third species of Stoliczka from India.

The team named it Stoliczka vanhnuailianai, in honour of Vanhnuailiana, a famous Mizo warrior. He was one of the most powerful chiefs of the Lushai Hills (now Mizoram) during the mid-1800s and led many successful campaigns against rival chiefs in the area.

The snake is about 50 cm in length, non-venomous, and has a dark brown shade above with a few dorsal scale rows bright yellow in colour. Though the head scales are uniformly dark brown it has bright pinkish sutures.

Who: FREO

What: partners with HDB Financial Services to offer lending solutions to new-age customers

When: published on 6th July 2021

FREO, India's Neobank, formerly known as MoneyTap, has partnered with HDB Financial Services (HDBFS) to cater to the evolving financial needs of new-age consumers. Through this association, FREO will be providing customers with two innovative credit products: a credit line and a high-ticket personal loan across multiple cities in India. HDBFS in partnership with FREO will offer a credit line that enables consumers to get access to credit anywhere, anytime via a smartphone. An individual will get a personalized amount approved which they can start using immediately. As they repay the borrowed amount, the credit limit is replenished and they can continue withdrawing as much as they need. Furthermore, interest is levied only on the amount the consumer uses, and not the overall limit they have been given. The partnership also offers consumers high-ticket personal loans of up to INR 10 lacs, which can be utilized for bigger expenses such as home renovation, buying a vehicle, planning a trip, and so forth.

Bala Parthasarathy, Co-Founder, FREO, said, "Partnerships with banks and reliable financial institutions play a pivotal role in building the Fintech ecosystem, making credit easily accessible for unbanked customers and helping them save and spend smartly throughout their financial journey. In sync with this vision, we have collaborated with HDB Financial Services Ltd and aim to deliver a complete digital financial journey to customers which is easy and flexible. We are delighted with this partnership and look forward to transforming the fintech ecosystem together in the times to come."
