Hints to Remember

Who: Mumbai Indians

What: beat Chennai Super Kings in last-ball thriller to win 4th title

When: published on 13th May 2019

Mumbai Indians defeated defending champions Chennai Super Kings by 1 run in a thriller in Hyderabad to become the 1st team to win the Indian Premier League 4 times.

Shane Watson played a starring role for Chennai Super Kings in an IPL final for the second successive year but his efforts were in vain as MI made a spectacular comeback.

It was a tense final. It was a thriller. After fortunes shifted both ways, Chennai Super Kings needed 9 off the final over but Lasith Malinga, who had gone for 20 in his previous over, gave away only 7 in the final over of the season to seal a sensational victory for Mumbai Indians.

No team had ever defeated Chennai Super Kings 4 times in an IPL season. MI had got the better of CSK in the league stages twice and had crushed them in the first qualifier before the nail-biting win in the final.
