16. Hints to Remember

Who: El Salvador President

What: Plans to Build World's First 'Bitcoin City' Run by Crypto Bonds

When: published on 22nd November 2021

President Nayib Bukele said El Salvador plans to build the world's first "Bitcoin City", powered by a volcano and financed by cryptocurrency bonds. Bitcoin City "is gonna include everything: residential areas, commercial areas, services, museums, entertainment... airport, port, rail," Bukele said at the Latin American Bitcoin and Blockchain Conference on Saturday. El Salvador, which has used the US dollar for two decades, was the first country in the world to legalize bitcoin as legal tender. Bukele said the Conchagua volcano "will power the whole city and will also power the mining." Bitcoin mining is the process by which new bitcoin is created using computers that solve complex mathematical problems — a process which demands huge amounts of energy.

In El Salvador, some of that energy comes from a geothermal plant fed by the Tecapa volcano. Bukele said the city would initially be powered by the Tecapa plant before his government builds a new geothermal plant powered by Conchagua.
