Explanation:

1. Checking the given options-

DBAC:

Pro-miners argue that deep-sea mining is essential to enable the energy transition.

The above sentence is both grammatically and contextually correct.

DCBA:

Pro-miners argue the energy transition that deep-sea mining is essential to enable.

The above sentence is absurd and can be eliminated.

BDCA:

That deep-sea mining pro-miners argue the energy transition is essential to enable.

The above sentence is abstruse and is out of consideration.

BACD:

That deep-sea mining is essential to enable the energy transition pro-miners argue.

The above sentence is also vague and can be eliminated too.

Clearly, option A is the correct answer.

2. Checking the given options-

DABC:

Despite the surge in infections, restrictions are seek to revive the economy being eased as authorities.

The above sentence is not meaningful and can be kept out of consideration.

DACB:

Despite the surge in infections, restrictions are being eased as authorities seek to revive the economy.

The above sentence is both grammatically and contextually correct.

BDCA:

Seek to revive the economy despite the surge in being eased as authorities infections, restrictions are.

The above sentence is absurd and therefore, can be eliminated.

BACD:

Seek to revive the economy infections, restrictions are being eased as authorities despite the surge in.

The above sentence is also vague and can be eliminated too.

Clearly, option B is the correct answer.

3. Checking the given options-

DABC:

Global conservation a new urgency in 2020 the need for an ambitious agenda has taken on.

The above sentence is absurd and can be eliminated.

DCBA:

Global conservation agenda has taken on the need for an ambitious a new urgency in 2020.

The above sentence is not meaningful and can be kept out of consideration.

BDCA:

The need for an ambitious global conservation agenda has taken on a new urgency in 2020.

The above sentence is both grammatically and contextually correct.

BACD:

The need for an ambitious a new urgency in 2020 agenda has taken on global conservation.

The above sentence is also absurd and therefore, can be eliminated.

Clearly, option C is the correct answer.

Thus, option A is the correct answer.

4. Given fragments:

form the (A) / in the first phase (B) / the government aims to (C) / force in the next three months with 9,900 personnel (D)

Given options:*CDBA:

The government aims to force in the next three months with 9,900 personnel in the first phase from the.

Clearly, the above sentence is ambiguous. Option A can be eliminated here.

CADB:

The government aims to form the force in the next three months with 9,900 personnel in the first phase.

Clearly, the above sentence is both grammatically correct and meaningful.

DBAC:

Force in the next three months with 9,900 personnel in the first phase from the the government aims to.

Evidently, the sentence above is not at all meaningful. This eliminates option C.

DCAB:

Force in the next three months with 9,900 personnel the government aims to from the in the first phase.

Once again, the sentence is not meaningful and hence option D can be eliminated too.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

5. Given fragments:

the labs said that (A) / or consultation (B) / and as a result, they had to stop testing (C) the rates were revised without any prior information (D)

Given options:

ADCB:

The labs said that the rates were revised without any prior information and as a result, they had to stop testing or consultation.

Clearly, the above sentence doesn't make any sense as labs do not consult patients, they test patients. Option A can be eliminated here.

ADBC:

The labs said that the rates were revised without any prior information or consultation and as a result, they had to stop testing.

Evidently, the sentence above makes complete sense.

DBCA:

The rates were revised without any prior information or consultation and as a result, they had to stop testing the labs said that.

The sentence above is absolutely meaningless. Option C can be eliminated easily.

DBAC:

The rates were revised without any prior information or consultation the labs said that and as a result, they had to stop testing.

Once again, the sentence doesn't make any proper sense as the subject is 'labs' not 'rates'. Option D can be eliminated too.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

6.

Given fragments:
