Correct answers:

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10
C	C	C	B	D	C	D	D	B	D

Explanations:

1. Checking C-D:

That store sells a wide range of goods the time of which is not known.

The sentence is contextually incorrect. The pair C-D is hence invalid.

Checking A-E:

The two-day event is being organized by the National Council of Teacher Education as part of silver jubilee celebration of its establishment in 1995.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

These companies have strong human resource practices and reduce pay disparity.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option C is hence the correct answer.

2. Checking C-D:

Between the two of them, Ken is the tallest.

The comparative degree should have been used instead of superlative since a comparison 'between' two people has been made. 'Taller' should replace 'tallest' so as to make the sentence correct. The pair C-D is hence invalid.

Checking B-F:

Trials need to be both extensive and exhaustive to achieve the required credibility.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking A-E:

India has traditionally been known for leadership in education and teacher preparation.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually. Hence, the pair A-E is valid.

Option C is hence the correct answer.

3. Checking B-D:

Tom looked around for his camera and could not find it anywhere.

Here, as the sentence implies contrast in ideas, usage of the conjunction 'and' is absurd. Instead of 'and' 'but' should have been used. Hence, the sentence doesn't make any sense. The pair B-D is hence invalid.

Checking A-F:

The World Humanitarian Day provides an opportunity to celebrate the spirit that inspires benevolent work around the globe.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

The platform brings apps and services from third parties, which help sellers manage various aspects of selling goods via Amazon.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option C is hence the correct answer.

4. Checking C-D:

The security flaws are indeed serious, as they could result in group chat participants being humiliated by false messages.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking A-F:

Chad President Idriss Deby has declared a state of emergency in two eastern provinces after violent inter-communal clashes left dozens dead earlier this month.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually as well.

Checking B-E:

The morning sunshine is so bright that I can't look at it.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

5. Checking A-E:

Both warmer air and warmer water are eating away at Greenland, causing it to lose billions of tons of ice daily in the summer.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

Foldable handsets represent a significant break with the dominant shape that smartphones have taken since Steve Jobs introduced the world to the iPhone in 2007.

The above sentence is also correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-D:

He begged me to take the job on the reclining chair.

The above sentence is contextually incorrect rendering it meaningless.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

6. Checking A-F:

The RBI has told banks not to treat failed transactions at ATMs as part of five free transactions available to customers every month.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

Google's virtual assistant is reportedly getting the ability to read messages from non-Google apps like WhatsApp, Slack and Telegram.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

We can haggle over price later while the thief ran away with the goods.

The two fragments of the sentence put together are not making sense contextually. Hence, pair C-E is invalid.

Option C is hence the correct answer.

7. Checking A-E:

Expressed in dollar terms, foreign currency assets include the effect of appreciation and depreciation of non-US units like the euro, pound and yen held in the reserves.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

I went fishing with him was a convicted felon.

The above sentence does not make any sense and is incorrect both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-D:

At the heart of one of India's longest-running oil grouses lies a phenomenon known as the 'Asian premium'.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually. Hence, the pair C-D is valid.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

8. Checking B-D:

Cortisone inhibits cell metabolism, further shut down the healing response.

The above sentence is incorrect grammatically. 'Shutting' should be used instead of 'shut' to make it correct.

Checking C-E:

A fashion model must have a good figures are not adding up.

The sentence doesn't make any sense contextually. The pair C-E is hence invalid.

Checking A-F:

The nine day Adi mahotsav will showcase traditional art and handicrafts and cultural heritage of the country.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option D is hence the correct answer.

9. Checking A-E:

The aim of Village Volunteers System is to provide government services at doorsteps of people.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-F:

Mispronunciations, accents, dialects and background noise can reduce the efficacy of the captions.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually as well.

Checking C-D:

His business has gone from bad to worse.

The above sentence too is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Option B is hence the correct answer.

10. Checking A-F:

Priority sector plays an important role in the economic development of the country.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking B-D:

The big question is whether the on-going slowdown is structural or cyclical.

The above sentence is correct both grammatically and contextually.

Checking C-E:

I bought a tie for Dan using it when it rains.

The sentence doesn't make any sense contextually. The pair C-E is hence invalid.

Option D is hence the correct answer.
